A MAP OF RICHMOND.

Mr. Arthur B. Clarke, chairman of the Committee on Manufactures, reported that a great need was felt by his committee for a map of Richmond and the vicinity, so as to have a suitable map for manufacturing enterprises, etc., and he requested the board to make an appropriation for having such a map prepared.

Mr. George L. Christian, second vice-president, and said that in his efforts recently to find a suitable location to which to remove his works, he had experienced the greatest difficulty in learning where such sites existed and to what they belonged.

Upon motion of Mr. W. B. Quarles, the committee on manufactures was authorized to have such a map prepared.

Mr. A. D. Landenker moved that if the committee have not the map published, it be copyrighted as a map of the city.

Upon motion of Mr. W. B. Quarles, the committee on manufactures was authorized to have such a map prepared.

POST AND TELEGRAPH SERVICE.

Mr. B. F. Johnson, chairman of the committee on post and telegraph, reported a resolution approving a bill to establish a limited post and telegraph service, etc., as a part of the Post office Department, advocated in a communication from the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, which was adopted, and the secretary was directed to communicate the action of the Chamber to the New York Board of Trade and Transportation.

RAILROADS.

The following reports were submitted by Mr. S. W. Travers, chairman of the Committee on Inland Trade:

RICHMOND, VA., May 5, 1890.

To the President and Board of Directors, Richmond Chamber of Commerce, city:

"Dear Sir,--I beg to submit, as a part of this report, the report of Mr. E. G. Leigh, Jr., chairman of the committee on railroads and canals, and their railroads, and the report of Mr. A. H. Christian, Mr. chairman of the Committee on the Atlantic Coast Line. Our committee has now nothing before it on the Richmond and Danville system.

"It has been of interest to the work manifested by the members of the committee. And whilst we have not as much work accomplished to report at this meeting, as we had hoped, yet we wish to assure the chamber that our committee on railroads and canals, and their railroads, are receiving attention, and in due time we hope to have the pleasure of reporting specific results. Respectfully submitted, S. W. Travers, Chairman Committee on Inland Trade."

RICHMOND, VA., May 7, 1890.

S. W. Travers, Esq., Chairman Committee on Inland Trade.

"Dear Sir: I beg to report that the sub-committee on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and its connections have held several meetings, and that your committee is now in a position to present to you a suitable paper to prevent, if possible, the honorable State Board of Education from making any change in the text-books now used, and which have been used for many years past in the public schools of the State of Virginia.

"The statement which you made in this report, the report of Mr. E. G. Leigh, Jr., chairman of the committee on railroads and canals, and their railroads, and the report of Mr. A. H. Christian, Mr. chairman of the Committee on the Atlantic Coast Line, our committee has now nothing before it on the Richmond and Danville system.

"It has been of interest to the work manifested by the members of the committee. And whilst we have not as much work accomplished to report at this meeting, as we had hoped, yet we wish to assure the chamber that our committee on railroads and canals, and their railroads, are receiving attention, and in due time we hope to have the pleasure of reporting specific results. Respectfully submitted, S. W. Travers, Chairman Committee on Inland Trade."

SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Proposed Change in School Books Discussed.

"Pupils School Friend" writes The Times as follows: "Every citizen interested in this important matter is truly glad to see the efforts of the sub-committee on railroads and canals to prevent, if possible, the honorable State Board of Education from making any change in the text-books now used, and which have been used for many years past in the public schools of the State of Virginia."

"Every citizen has proved that they are as good as any published, and more suitable adapted for Southern children than other school books. The authors are nearly all Southern men to the manor born; many of them Virginians, and of national fame as well."

"The City auditedness was called to Farnum street yesterday morning to a man who had an epileptic fit. The sick man was taken to his home on Eighteenth street.

The Committee on Improvement of James River will meet this morning under the Planners' National Bank at 10 o'clock.
